But, for all we know, this celebrity interview could have been staged.

This celebrity news has us skeptical. What are some ways to deal with allegations that your partner has cheated?

Cupid's Advice:

When you are in love, to find out your partner is cheating can be a hard pill to swallow. Sometimes those accusations are false, but sorting that out is a tough task. If they are not cheating and you accuse them, it creates a new problem in the relationship. Cupid is here to give you a little relationship advice to deal with infidelity allegations:

1. Change in behavior: Although a change in the way your partner acts is not absolute evidence that your partner is cheating, it can alert you that there may be a reason to look further into things. People go to great lengths to hide their betrayal. Attempt to recall any unusual behavior that is suspicious or concerning. This could be cause to approach your partner about the possibility of cheating.

2. Address the accusations: There is no need to sit and wonder whether or not your loved one is being unfaithful. If you feel there is a reason to bring up the question, then flat out ask your significant other about whether or not the rumors are true. The hope is that you can open up the conversation to discuss the situation at hand.
