this.'" His response, 'Write the rest of it.'" This celebrity relationship is headed in the right direction as they make beautiful music together.

In celebrity news, Gwen Stefani thought Blake's song would be a "huge turn off." What are some turn offs to avoid when you're trying to date someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone can be as cute as Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton. Sometimes the song your man writes you is a turn-off and dating them no longer seems like the best option. Cupid is here with some red flags:

1. Not paying attention: It's such a turn-off if your partner isn't looking you in the eye or remembering important information. He's either being sketchy or unresponsive. You deserve more from a partner so if he's acting like this, dump him!

2. Not being honest: If you catch your partner in a lie or see him hiding his phone, it's a red flag. Don't always assume the worst but if it continues, he's not worth your time. Consider your happiness first and get out if that's what it takes to make you happy.

3. Not prioritizing: When your partner picks his friends over you or blows you off to spend time elsewhere, don't just take it. Talk to him and communicate your feelings or kick him to the curb. If you don't feel special, don't let him waste your time.
