

Dating Advice: 5 Good Reasons to Date Your Best Friend

By Josh Ringle

There is a common thought prevalent in society stating that you should always marry your best friend. Well, the fact of the matter is, you can't marry your best friend until you date them! While celebrity couples have highlighted the best and worst of these best-friends-turned-lovers situations, it is entirely possible that you make the most of your situation if you decide to date your best friend. If you aren't sure if you want to give it a try, check out Cupid's dating advice below!

These pieces of dating advice highlight some reasons dating your best friend might be a great idea!

1. Comfort: A really important part of any relationship is the comfort level that exists between you and your significant other. Comfort levels among best friends are usually really high, which can only help your relationship grow over time. A great piece of love advice is to maintain a clearly defined comfort level so both you and your partner know what the limits are. If those limits are kept in check, there would be no reason for your relationship with your best friend to not be the best!

2. Easy transition: If your friendship with your best friend is already a little flirty, or just very comfortable, the transition to dating could be very easy. New friends that decide to date can have a hard time transitioning to becoming a couple because they don't know a lot about each other, and they may not be too comfortable either. All of that leads to a lot of relationship problems, but being best friends means you have already avoided all of that! Smooth sailing into a great relationship is in your future if you go for it.

3. The obvious is key: The two of you are already friends, best friends even. That means you and your significant other already know about personal problems, family issues, friend issues, and other important emotional things. The fact that there is an important, caring connection makes falling in love a lot easier, and makes the relationship a lot easier to grow. As best friends, the two of you know the little things in life that may mean more than the big things, and in a relationship, sometimes the small things are just as important!

4. Communication: One of the key parts of a relationship is good communication. Relationship problems can sometimes stem from how the two of you communicate. Best friends are mostly good at communicating with each other, and you may even realize the potential love in your pre-relationship communication. If that is the case, you should definitely consider dating your best friend. A good piece of dating advice is to keep a good line of communication open because the better the communication, the better the relationship!

5. It won't ruin your friendship: The biggest reason against dating your best friend is the common misconception that trying to date her/him will ruin your friendship. If there's no cheating or major fights, there is absolutely no reason that an attempted relationship will ruin your friendship. If anything, it will make your friendship a stronger backbone of your new, more intimate relationship. If you are afraid that your friendship could be ruined, talk about it, and you'll find a way to make it all work.
