This celebrity news has us questioning just who is interested in French Montana! What are some ways to avoid crushing on the same person as your friend or sibling?

Cupid's Advice:

While it doesn't seem that any woman from the Kardashian/Jenner family is currently dating French Montana, never say never. Falling for the ex-flame or current crush of a friend or sibling tends cause issues, but in some cases can't be helped. Before you go falling for the same person as a friend or sibling, think about it:

1. This relationship will hurt your friend/sibling: Even when a friend or sibling plays it cool about you crushing on the same person they are or have in the past, they're most likely not okay with it. If you're crushing on the same person, chances are your jealous and competitive sides will be on full display. Think about the importance of your relationship with your friend or sibling, and realize that pursuing this romantic relationship will hurt the relationship you already have with your them. Chances are the crush isn't worth it.

2. History repeats itself: If you're crushing on the ex of a friend or sibling, do some research on the reason they broke up. If the person treated your friend or sibling badly at the end of their relationship, that should warn you to stay away.
