

Dating Advice: When Should I Sleep With A Guy?

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Jonathan Aslay to offer their dating advice about when it would be right to sleep with a new partner. Follow these dating tips if you want to start having success on your dates.

Dating Advice On Sleeping With A New Man

1. Do what is right for you. There is no real timeframe that is right for everyone. You need to come to terms with yourself and find out when the right time is for you. If you're looking for a serious relationship, you may not want to sleep with a new man too soon. A man who truly cares about you will try to get to know you before taking you to the bedroom.

2. Try the 10-date rule. You'll be able weed out the men who only want to have sex after the third and fourth date. The likelihood of sleeping together increases somewhere between the sixth and tenth date. This is a great option for those who are looking for someone that legitimately like them. The ten dates should occur somewhere between 6-weeks if it's not a long-distance relationship.

3. Don't be jaded. Negativity and cynical attitudes sabotage a lot of relationships. Don't assume all men are bad. The experts dating advice is to be open to love and realistic with your expectations. Many women say they need a commitment before having sex, but you need to define what commitment means to you and go forward with your relationships accordingly.
