

Celebrity Couple Prince Harry & Meghan Markle: Secret Toronto Visit

By Kayla Garritano

They're making long distance work! Prince Harry made a secret visit to Toronto in order to see his rumored girlfriend, Meghan Markle, at her home. According to UsMagazine.com, the English Prince kept a low profile on his visit and arrived in Toronto's Pearson International Airport on October 28 only having one protection officer. For the next several days, including Halloween night, the celebrity couple stayed in Markle's suburban pad, staying in and cooking together at home, all while playing with her rescue dogs. A pal of Harry said, "It's very serious."

This new celebrity couple is trying to keep their interactions low-key! What are some ways to ease into a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

New relationships are a big deal! They can sometimes be scary as well, especially if you're new to it or haven't been in a serious one in a while. Cupid is here to help you ease into your relationship with some dating advice:

1. Take it slow: Easing into a relationship may mean not seeing each other every day, or only hanging out a few times a month. Still make sure there's time apart to focus on yourself. You may need some space in order to get closer. Get to know your new partner and enjoy your time together, all while keeping yourself going in the right path. There's no need to jump into it.

2. Communication always: As per usual, communication in a relationship is a major key. But when you're in a new relationship, it's best to lay out everything and let your partner know what you want. This way, there are no secrets, and questions you may have later on can be answered ahead of time. Also, make sure your partner knows that you want to take the relationship slow at first and ease into things. They should respect your decisions.
