

Dating Advice: Best Online Dating Photo Tips

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Wendy Newman to offer their dating advice for those who want to improve their online dating profile photos. Learn how to attract a quality partner through your online dating profiles with the following dating tips.

1. Do it for you. Get comfortable and take photos of yourself that look simple and natural. Don't have anything in your profile photo that distracts from the message that you're looking for someone. Also avoid posting group photos as a main way to represent yourself, it gets confusing.

2. Know what you're showing. You only have a few photos to show who you really are. Be aware of what you're showcasing, and try to provide a variety. If you only upload photos where you're out drinking or working out, a person online will think that's all you care about and that you don't have other interests. It's a sure way to get yourself overlooked.

3. Have a full body shot. You want to show what you really look like. Avoid taking shots that misrepresent how your body naturally appears. Be comfortable in your own body and be yourself. Let your potential date choose whether or not they want to meet you based on how you look. It avoids awkward in-person interactions in the future.
