Cupid’s Advice:

When it comes to keeping a relationship fresh and fun, Cupid is here to help! Here are the top three ways to keep you and your significant other crazy about each other even as time goes on:

1. Commit to a biweekly date night: When you’ve been together for awhile and perhaps even share a house, a car and kids, keeping the spark alive with sexy date nights and romantic getaways can seem like a thing of the past. Bring back the passion by committing to having a real night out together at least every two weeks. Get dressed up and go to a romantic, candlelit dinner or keep it casual and cuddle up in the back of a movie theater to watch a fun flick you both really want to see. Whatever you do, make sure you’re both on board and looking forward to whatever activity it is you have planned, and just enjoy being together without the distractions of your other commitments.

2. Pick up a new hobby together: Running out of things to talk about with the routine of life always seeming to stay the same? Why not try a new activity together that you can share, explore and chat about with one another? Sign up for a couple's cooking class, host a weekly board game night with friends or shake things up with a sexy salsa class; whatever it takes to add some fun flair to your life and give you something brand new and exciting to discuss and share together.

3. Do something sweet and unexpected: Feeling as though lately you and your partner are stuck in a comfortable rut? Why not add some sexy fun to your life by figuring out some ways to surprise your significant other with a series of sweet and unexpected surprises. Buy them flowers out of the blue, leave post-it notes full of compliments and inside jokes around the house for them to find, tell them they look great without being prompted and surprise them with tickets to a favorite game or show. The best way to keep the spark alive in your relationship is to prioritize one another and to remember to be grateful for the amazing relationship you have with this wonderful person!
