The celebrity parents both have nannies that take turns watching their daughter, which makes the situation a bit easier. Chyna's attorney is currently trying to help find a agreement that the two can agree to.

These celebrity exes and parents to daughter Dream are trying to get on the same page. What are some ways to keep things civil for the sake of your children?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to put your kids first, no matter how you get along with your ex. Cupid has some advice:

1. Don't bring up personal issues: Even though you may be on bad terms with your ex, do not bad mouth them to your child. Save your upset feeling for private chats with friends. Trying to let your child be on "your side" will make things unfair in the long run.

2. Make an agreement: Try to come together with your ex and work out an agreement about when and how you're going to parent your child(ren). Getting an idea of what is manageable will help you plan a schedule out.

3. Let your child make some choices: It might be easy for you and your ex to call the shots, but allow your child to make some decisions now and then. If a holiday is coming up, ask what they would like to do. Your child will be happy to have some freedom to choose.
