There may be a new celebrity couple in Hollywood. What are some ways to announce your new relationship to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Being in a new relationship is always a really exciting time, and Brenda and Macaulay are definitely proving that to be true. If you're dating someone new and want to go public soon, check out some of these tips from Cupid:

1. Keep it casual: If you don't want to make a big deal out of it, you can try to phase your partner into your friend group. Gradually have them hang out with you and your friends more and more, and then eventually just let people know that they are your new boo. This way your friends have already gotten to know them a bit and it's less awkward!

2. Have a big dinner: If you're more keen toward a greater gesture, you can try to organize a big dinner with your close friends and family. This is a great way for you to introduce your partner to all your loved ones all at the same time. While it may be a bit overwhelming, it can also be a really fun time as well.

3. Have a separate dinner for each: If you want to combine the two, organize two separate dinners for your family and friends. This way, your partner has the opportunity to get to know your loved ones but do so at different times. This can be less overwhelming for you and your lover since they can be smaller get togethers.
