This is going to be the shortest article I've ever written because, if you are like most people, you're going to think that next year will be different because it's a different year. It's really simple. You actually start to date. Because if you need to change your dating tactics, it means you're not dating enough, and if you're not dating enough, it means you're not putting enough energy or effort into your search for love.

As a relationship expert, I've always believed dating is massive action, massive results. The more you put yourself out there, the better chance you're going to have of actually meeting somebody fantastic. But how do you do this massive action, massive results?

Well, first off, you've got to get dates. In order to get dates, you've got to get on the apps. From Bumble to Tinder to any other app, you need to put yourself out there. And you need to accept the fact that it's going to take you a lot of un-swipes or swipe lefts to find a mutual swipe right. Don't take anything personal.

The dating apps are only part of it. You also need to go and join a dating website. Join a site like match.com and go out and meet people. You can even make one night per week a "going out" night. Don't just have text or e-mail relationships.

You should also keep another night free for any potential dates that may pop up. Why? Because if you free yourself and you allow yourself to go out on dates, you're going to meet people. And if you meet people, you're going to be more successful when it comes dating.
