In latest celebrity news, The Bachelor finale aired on Monday! Spoiler alert: Arie Luyendyk Jr. proposed to Becca and left Lauren heartbroken. This season of The Bachelor showcased Arie's indecisiveness and abundance of love for many girls! Becca was clearly ecstatic with this result, but Lauren said she felt "betrayed" and "extremely confused" because Arie led her to believe that she was the one. That being said, she didn't have to be confused for long, because Arie had a change of heart, broke off his engagement to Becca, and then begged for Lauren's forgiveness! Now, the new official celebrity couple Lauren and Arie are looking for a new start!

In celebrity news, Arie is probably going down in history as the worst Bachelor ever. What are some ways to know you're sure you're ready before proposing to your significant other?

Cupid's Advice:

It's hard to imagine how your feelings would conflict if you were in the same position as Arie. Nevertheless, marriage is a big commitment and you need to make sure you truly love this person before you embark on this incredible journey of marriage. Here are some things that can help you focus your mind and determine whether you're ready to propose or say "yes" to a proposal:

1. You've allowed yourself to be vulnerable: Before you devote yourself to a lifetime commitment, you need to make sure that your partner has seen every beautiful aspect of you and your personality. You're not worried that one day your partner might realize some insecure that you have and then not want to be with you anymore. You know you're ready for marriage if you have been comfortably vulnerable with your partner and they truly know what makes you, you.

2. Your happiness is their happiness: Whenever anything good happens in your life, the first thing you think to do is call your partner because you know they will be just as happy as you are. Form yourself a relationship where you can share good times and bad and you can be confident that your partner will equally experience all of these emotions with you.

3. If you couldn't have an amazing ceremony, you'd still marry: You need to make sure that it is truly your partner whom you want to marry, not the idea of your wedding ceremony. Sometimes when you get to a certain age, you may feel like it is time to settle and have this amazing wedding ceremony that all of your friends have already had, but please make sure that your partner is who you want for the rest of your life. Your soulmate is in this world and it's just a matter of when you find them!
