Cupid's Advice:

The emotions that flow through you in the weeks leading up to your wedding day are so wonderful and exciting. But sometimes, some anxiety can creep in. Here are some ways to push those negative emotions aside and focus on the pure happiness that comes with the time leading up to the big day:

1. Eat healthy: This may seem like a weird thing to do in order to help you become less stressed for your wedding day, but think about it...Healthy food helps you to feel more energized while junk food can make you tired, lethargic, and cranky. The more energy you have, the easier it will be to plan those last minute things. Also, eating healthy will make you more happy because it will decrease the stress of you fitting into your wedding day outfit knowing that you are consuming non-fatty foods. It is a win-win situation.

2. Stay busy: Go to the gym, do yoga, have a nice spa day, watch a funny movie with your boo. Try your best to keep your mind occupied with other fun things so that you don't begin to overthink and stress about your wedding day. If you keep yourself occupied, it will help you to resist checking the predicted weather forecast for your wedding day every five minutes.

3. Remember why you are celebrating: Sometimes it is easy to get wrapped up in all the wedding planning that you briefly forget the reason behind all of this. You are celebrating true love! If you begin to feel anxious, take a step back and realize that this is a wonderful celebration for you and your partner and there is no need to stress.
