Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to say the right things to your friend or family member who has been cheated on. You don't want to say anything that will upset them and you truly want to comfort them because it pains you that they are going through this. Here are some tips on how you can help in this occurrence:

1. Be more positive than negative: Try not to say things like "once a cheater, always a cheater" because who knows if the two will get back together. Instead of focusing on the bad, focus on the good. Remind your pal that they are so strong, you guys are going to get through this together, and you will support them no matter what.

2. Help in any way you can: Go out of your way to get your friend or family member their favorite food. Or, offer to help out in watching their children. Just try to be there for them without putting the focus on the cheating.

3. Let them make their own decisions: You may have your opinions, but try to keep them to yourself and simply guide your friend or family member with love and support. Try not to say “forgive them” or “forget them”. That is for them to decide. All you can do is be there for them, listen, and comfort.
