Cupid's Advice:

Life has a way at chipping away at a relationship. Cupid has some ways to keep the romance alive in your marriage.

1. Make date night a priority: Dating is what made you fall in love in the first place. So, it would make sense to keep at it to stay in love. But as we know life gets in the way. So, remember date night does have to elaborate or over the top, it could be something simple as a picnic. Just set aside time for each other each week for just the two of you to reconnect.

2. Don't give up: A relationship is a roller coaster, full of ups and downs. Romance in marriage is about choosing each other again and again. It's also about learning, growing and forgiving. It's about falling in love with each other over and over again no matter how hard it gets. Love only weakens when we stop giving it our all. So never stop.

3. Never lose the PDA: At the beginning of a relationship, you probably couldn't keep your hands off each other. Constantly holding hands, sneaking in an extra kiss or two, cuddling. Ask yourself how affectionate are you now? After a long period of time and kids' things can get a little trickery when it comes to the PDA. It's important to maintain that closeness that PDA provides. Physical touch should happen on a daily whether it's a peck on the cheek, holding hands or a slight pat on the butt. By maintaining the PDA you will be able to keep the romance alive.
