Cupid's Advice:

Everyone loves a good fairy tale, but for many couples that simply doesn't happen. Most people don't know how to create and maintain healthy relationships and marriages. Cupid has some ways to make a relationship work through thick and thin:

1. Empathize with each other: One of the biggest problems in relationships is that people only see their own point of views. In order to really connect, you have to listen to one another and accept each other's point of view.

2. Date night: After a few years people tend to forget to date each other. They think the hard part is over and done with because they're comfortable with each other. But sometimes life, kids and work get in the way of keeping the romance alive. It's important that you spend time together and consistently keep reconnecting.

3. Learn to work through conflict: When couples fight it's a "Me vs. You" situation. They often think they have to be right and win an argument. This is the wrong way to think. It's not me vs. you...it's us meaning a team. You have to remember that you are working together to accomplish a goal and solve the problem together.
