The party was an intimate occasion attended by their close friends and family members. They started dating in the spring of 2018 and are now in their relationship for the long haul.

This celebrity couple is preparing for their nuptials with an engagement party. What are three types of engagement parties to consider?

Cupid's Advice:

There's a lot to consider when planning your nuptials, and the engagement party is one of them! Cupid has a few ideas that may help:

1. A formal lunch: If you're having a large wedding with a lot of guests, consider having your engagement party at a restaurant that will cater to your needs. For instance, consider a family style Italian restaurant as opposed to a hole-in-the-wall gourmet French restaurant. Ordering individual meals in a small space probably isn't the best plan.

2. Barbeque: A barbeque is always a great time whenever family and friends get together. You can have a small or large gathering of family and friends... and who doesn't love BBQ chicken?

3. A themed party: Why not have an engagement party that is themed along with your wedding? Whether you're breaking out light sabers or fairy lights, a themed engagement party is sure to be something everyone will remember.
