Celebrity couple Mike Caussin and Jana Kramer had a miscommunication when Caussin claimed he would call it quits on their celebrity marriage if his wife was unfaithful, according to UsMagazine.com in the latest celebrity news. While at the iHeart Radio Wango Tango Podcast Suit sponsored by Sugarbear Hair in LA on June 1 with Us, Kramer said, "I am still scratching my head about that, too, because it feels very one-sided to me, and honestly it kind of hurts my feelings that he wouldn't stand by me if I did that." Kramer and Caussin split briefly in 2016 after he cheated on her with multiple women. They later reconciled and renewed their vows in 2017.

In celebrity news, Jana Kramer is scratching her head after a comment from her husband. What are some ways to clear up miscommunication with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Miscommunications between you and your partner like the one Kramer and Caussin had can happen between couples occasionally. Cupid has some advice on how to clear up any misunderstandings:

1. Avoid always having to be "right": In a situation where you've had a misunderstanding with your partner, things can escalate quickly if you try to stand your ground and say you're right. The "always right" mentality stonewalls any farther communication. Be willing to admit that you might not have understood your partner so the situation does not get worse.

2. Listen: Listening to your partner not only shows them you are willing to work together but it will also that you value their opinion. It's easy to misword something when you speak so if one of you misunderstands what the other says, don't immediately get angry with your partner.

3. Take a break if the situation escalates: Sometimes it's better to just walk away and cool down. Take this time to reflect on what was said between you and your partner. Once you've both calmed down, give each other both a chance to speak so both sides have a chance to explain what happened.
