By Katie Sotack

Recently, news of Bradley Cooper's celebrity break-up with Irina Shayk broke. According to EOnline.com, rumors had been flying that Cooper's A Star Is Born costar Lady Gaga contributed to the couple's tension and demise. Gaga, who was performing in Vegas when news of the split arose, gave a speech about trying to change others before singing her and Cooper's duet, Shallow. It may be a stretch, but fans are certain of Gaga's hidden message about Cooper.

This celebrity break-up has a lot of rumors surrounding it. What are some ways to keep gossip from making your break-up worse than it actually is?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumor mills never stop turning. They can be hurtful and amplify situations for the worse. Here are some ways to keep ahead of the gossip about your breakup:

1. Make a clear statement: Once news of the breakup hits you'll have to have a go-to explanation prepared. Make it unbiased and appreciative of your ex-partner if you want to minimize the damage and potential gossip.
