Cupid’s Advice:

Miley Cyrus and Kaitlynn Carter looked super cute in their matching black outfits. However, it’s easy to go from cute to corny when it comes to matching outfits. Luckily, Cupid has some advice that will help you and your significant other look coordinated and cute instead of tacky:

1. Wear dark colors: Just like Cyrus and Carter, stick to dark colors for a classy matching ensemble. You want to highlight that you’re matching with your partner while also making it look natural. Bright colors will distract from the coordination and look as though it’s forced.

2. Pick a vibe: If you want to go for a more subtle approach to matching with your partner an easy way to do so is to pick a vibe or an aesthetic. Are you trying to channel high fashion or a look from a certain era? You don’t necessarily have to match colors or specific articles of clothing, but as long as you both go for the same general idea you’ll both look chic!

3. Keep it simple: Simply, don't overdo it. We've all seen those pictures of celebrity couples in the early 2000s coordinating outrageous outfits. You don't want to follow in their steps. If matching outfits scare you, try to coordinate accessories instead of entire ensembles and work your way up.
