Cupid's Advice:

There's something about love that just makes colors brighter, the world happier, and your life the most magical part of the universe. There's nothing sweeter than finding someone that makes you feel like you are worthy of a lifetime of love. But, sometimes it isn't so easy to distinguish whether or not this person is "the one" for you. If you're in a relationship that you're thinking could be your soulmate, Cupid has some relationship tips for figuring out if your partner is "the one" or not:

1. They bring out the best parts of you: The right relationships should always show the absolute best parts of who you are. They are meant to bring out what others can't, and if you feel like your partner does that, it might be a good indication that they're the one for you. But, remember! Make sure you bring out the best in them, as well.

2. Your friends and family have never seen you happier: Those closest to you know you better than you know yourself. They know when you're sad, or when you're angry, or even when you're happy. If you've gotten comments from friends and family that detail how much happier or how much you glow since being in this relationship, you might have found "the one" for you. You should never be in a relationship with someone that doesn't make you the happiest you've ever felt.

3. You're each other's biggest fans: There's nothing like a relationship that shows how much you support the other. If you're both your guys' biggest cheerleaders, no matter what, it's a great indication that you found someone that can be with you for life. It's hard to find partners who are willing to support you, unconditionally. If you have that in your relationship, you're one of the lucky ones. Cherish it!
