Cupid's Advice:

The first anniversary after you get married is always a special one. It's the celebration of a full year being committed to one another, which is a big milestone for both you and your partner in married life. It's a year of symbolizing adjustment and unwavering love. If your first wedding anniversary is coming up, and you're not sure yet what to do to make it special, don't worry! Cupid has some relationship advice on how to make this date one to remember:

1. Eat the first layer of your wedding cake: If you saved a piece of your wedding cake, as many couples do, you can start off the day by both sitting down and eating it. It's a sentimental gesture that will have you both remember your wedding day and the emotions that came along with that. Besides, who can resist cake?

2. Revisit your first date: If you can remember the first date you had together, try and recreate it. It might seem cheesy, but it's fun and sweet to go out and do the very thing that led to you getting married. If it's going to the movies and purchasing a certain candy, do that. If it's eating out at a restaurant, try dining there again and ordering the same meal.

It'll spark nostalgia and forgotten memories between the two of you.

3. Take a class together: Have you and your partner been wanting to learn to cook better? Maybe, you're wanting to finesse some art skills? Dancing? Decide on a class to start taking, and begin on your anniversary. This way you'll both be able to spend some extra time together doing something that you both enjoy, and it'll spark endless opportunities for other classes to take together.
