In the latest celebrity news, reality TV star Teresa Giudice opened up about her marriage to estranged husband Joe during the reunion of The Real Housewives of New Jersey. According to UsMagazine.com, she was anything, but gentle. Andy Cohen asked her back in October if she was still attracted to her ex-husband, and she said she wasn't. In the previews of the episode, he asked her again, months later, and she was still firm about having no physical attraction to him. She even went as far as to say that Joe wanted to have sex on their trip to Italy and that she was thankful for her youngest daughter sleeping in the bed with her every night. "It was a good c-blocker."

In celebrity news, Teresa Giudice is no longer attracted to her husband. What do you do to get the spark back in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, the attraction that you have for your partner can fade. You can get into a routine that causes the romance to flicker. Or, your honeymoon phase has ended, and it's hard to navigate the relationship in the same way you did before. Being physically attracted to your partner is an important aspect of a relationship's longevity, and keeping that fire alive isn't always as easy as it seems. If you're having trouble with finding that spark again, don't worry! Cupid has some love advice that can help you relight that flame in your relationship:

1. Watch old videos: If you're married, sitting down together to rewatch your wedding video can cause you both to remember why you fell in love with one another in the first place. Even if you aren't married, old videos with each other in the peak of your relationship can be the catalyst for jump-starting the emotions and attraction that you might've lost along the way.

2. Plan a trip: A lot of times, a relationship can suffer because it's been harder to spend as much time together as you used to. Planning a trip to go away together for even just a couple of days can do wonders for a relationship that hasn't gotten alone time in quite a while. Existing with one another away from your day-to-day life is a great way to rekindle relationships.

3. Reenact your first date: A fun way to bring the spark back into a relationship is to reenact the first date you guys went on. Whether that be a dinner date, a trip to the movies, or whatever it may be, it can be a cute way for both of you to reminiscence on what initially caused you to fall in love with this person. Besides, if the first date was bad, you both can laugh about it together all the way through.
