By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, former reality TV star Colton Underwood joked about his split from Cassie Randolph with the help of Sean Lowe ahead of the premiere of The Bachelor. According to UsMagazine.com, Lowe took to Instagram the night before ABC is set to air condensed version of season 17 of The Bachelor. Underneath the photo of Lowe and his now wife Catherine Giudici, Underwood commented, "Hopefully you are still with her." Many fans responded, complaining how it's too soon to joke about his break-up with Randolph. Underwood then stated, "Sometimes people are just meant to be friends and that's okay. We both have grown immensely and been through so much together so this isn't the end of our story, it's the start of a whole new chapter for us."

In celebrity break-up news, Colton Underwood is already joking about his recent split from Cassie Randolph. What are some ways to use humor in the healing process after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Although break-ups can be difficult, laughing about it can really take the edge off. If you want to be able to use humor in the healing process after a break-up, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Develop a smarter sense of humor: Using humor in tense situations can be hard to pull off. You want to be sensitive your ex's feeling but still make light of everything. Avoid mean spirited jokes. Saying something hurtful in a joke form could come off even worse than just being hurtful.

2. Don't use humor to cover up your emotions: Even though humor can help you heal from a break-up, if you use humor to hide or avoid your emotions than it can be unhealthy. If you're going to joke about your past relationship, make sure it's not for the wrong reasons.

3. Make sure you're both in on the joke: Humor only works if both parties are in on it. If you are joking about your past relationship make sure your ex is okay with it. If not it'll just seem like you're picking on your ex and it won't make you feel any better either.
