In celebrity couple news, Megan Fox has moved on from Brian Austin Green with Machine Gun Kelly. What are some ways to keep hurting your ex to a minimum when you move on with someone new?

Cupid's Advice:

Once you break up with someone, it can take your ex a little bit longer to get over the relationship than it did for you. If you've moved on with someone else after a break-up, but you don't want to hurt your ex, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Just tell them: Although this may seem like a hurtful tactic, letting your ex know before they find out from social media or a mutual friend is going to work out in their favor. This way they have time to adjust to your new relationship and when someone else brings it up to them, they won't be surprised at all.

2. Don't be spiteful: Your ex may still be going through a rough time getting over you while you're in this new relationship, so don't do or say anything that you know would make them upset. Even though you may not be doing anything intentionally to hurt your ex, you could still be hurting them. Take a broader scope to all of your actions and do your best to be considerate of their feelings.

3. Try to set them up: You've moved on and if your ex is open to it you should try to set up your ex with someone that you know. It'll help the healing process for your ex and they could possibly get into a new relationship as well.
