Cupid's Advice:

A break-up is never an easy thing, and a lot of the times you never want to see your ex again, but if there are kids involved, then that's out of the question. If you are looking for ways to keep things civil with your ex for your kids, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Only talk when you have to: If you and your ex ended things badly and you have kids together make sure that the only reason that you both are communicating is the kids. Keep every conversation, phone call, or text message pertaining to the children. Don't talk about what went wrong in your relationship, it'll just create bad blood between you two.

2. Set your hurt/anger aside: Wearing your emotion on your sleeve won't benefit anyone and especially not your kids. It's ok to be hurt, but separate your feelings from your behavior because you don't want to put your kids in the middle of your drama.

3. Don't try to be in control: Walking all over your ex when it comes to decisions about the kids is not helpful, and it won't be good for your co-parenting relationship. Keep the communication gate open when it comes to the kids and make sure that you both make decisions for the kids together.
