Cupid's Advice:

When you're in a relationship, it can be hard to hear about your partner's past relationships, but acting as if they don't exist isn't the way to go. If you find it hard to hear about your partner's exes, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Remind yourself that you're together now: It can be so difficult to hear about partners' past relationships, but you have to remind yourself that this is your partner now and whatever they may have done with someone else is irrelevant to your relationship. Keep your head on straight and be able to separate their past relationship and your new relationship.

2. Just listen: As you're hearing about your partner's exes, your job is just to listen. Try to refrain from expressing what you think went wrong in their past relationships, or what you think of their ex. Keep your thoughts to yourself to avoid issues in your relationship.

3. Don't hold anything against your partner: Your partner could've made mistakes in their past relationship, but don't change your perception of your partner because of something they did previously. Each relationship is different, and just because your partner made a mistake doesn't mean that they're a bad person. You're are with your partner for a reason; keep that reason in mind.
