Cupid's Advice:

No one is ever really prepared for a loss of a loved one, especially not your significant other. If you're looking to cope with the loss of your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Allow yourself to cry: It's not healthy to keep your emotions inside, especially when it comes to something as drastic as a lost life. Don't hold your feeling back, no matter where you are. Allow yourself to cry and to feel that pain.

2. Go easy on yourself: There is no right way to feel when it comes to losing a partner. Don't get down on yourself if you're too sad or not sad enough, as everyone deals with grief differently and you're entitled to your own feelings.

3. Seek support: When you're grieving, it's sometimes best to be around your family and friends. The people who love you and want the best for you are the people who you need to seek support from. Reach out more often than you usually would, especially those times when you're feeling lonely.
