Cupid's Advice:

Starting a new relationship is leaves you feeling warm inside and eager to rush into your relationship. If you're looking for ways to ease into a new relationship, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Try new things together: When you're taking it slow, you have all the time in the world to actually enjoy dating. That's because you're probably going on more legit dates with your person, so you have more opportunities to make them fun and exciting, not dinner and a movie. And trying something new together can place you both in a position where you're newbies to the activity, and you can bond over how 'out of place' or natural the new activity feels.

2. Share something you love with your new partner: Figuring out compatibility is pretty important, so sharing your interests whether it's rock climbing, comedy, trying new foods with the person you're dating to help you decide if it's a match. This will help you feel more comfortable on a date, while helping your partner get to know you and your world.

3. Don't use texting as a crutch: Sure, texting is super convenient, but it's not the best form of communication when you're just getting to know someone. If you both can't meet up try talking on the phone or using video chat.
