By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Danica Patrick addresses internet trolls when someone comments on her celebrity break-up with Aaron Rodgers. According to EOnline.com, someone commented on Patrick's post saying, "At 38, its over for you in the relationship world with high value men. From a failed marriage to failed dating clearly you have a problem dating." Patrick posted the comment and captioned the post "If we let what one person thinks of us be our reality, we are doomed. Realize that what someone says to us has a lot more to do with their own wounds and reality than ours. Our reality is our decision."

Still not easy but true.”

In celebrity break-up news, Danica Patrick isn't letting anyone get away with bashing her most recent relationship with Aaron Rodgers. What are some ways to keep outside comments after a split from affecting you?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting over a break-up is hard enough as it is, but with additional comments on your split just adds to the negativity. If you are looking for ways to keep negative comments after a split from affecting you, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Address the comments: Just like Danica Patrick you can respond to the comment to keep people commenting on your situation. Whether you reply nicely or not so nicely people will eventually get the hint that you aren't interested in their remarks.
