This celebrity break-up is not going smoothly, as Kelly Clarkson is getting sued by her ex's father's company. What are some support systems to have in place during a dramatic divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Going through a divorce is challenging in any circumstance, but can be even more difficult when the divorce turns dramatic. Not only are you facing the end of a relationship, but you are also forced to confront other hardships in your life. If you are looking for ways to stay supported during a dramatic divorce, Cupid has some advice for you.

1. Family and friends: The first people you can find support in amid a dramatic divorce are those closest to you. Friends and family can be the perfect outlets to allow you to express your feelings and escape any drama caused by your divorce. You may also have someone in your circle that has gone through a similar experience and can offer some insight of their own.

2. A lawyer: The last person you probably want to spend more time with amid your divorce is your lawyer, but they can be one of your best support systems. By discussing any charges or accusations brought forward by your ex partner with your lawyer, you will have a better understanding of what you are actually responsible for throughout the process. This can help alleviate some of the uncertainty or stress you may be feeling.

3. Counselors and therapists: It can be easy to get caught up in the financial and legal strains of a difficult divorce and forget the effect it is having on your emotions. At the end of the day, you are still processing the end of a relationship as well. Discussing the events of your divorce with a therapist can help in the healing process and allow you to move on with your life in a healthier way.
