Cupid's Advice:

Long distance relationships can be difficult to navigate, no matter how prepared you may feel to take on the challenge of living in different places. However, with some hard work, long distance relationships can be successful. If you are looking for ways to make a long distance relationship work, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Have a communication plan: When you are not physically near someone, it can feel more tempting to want to talk to them more often. However, if you're expecting to talk to your partner all day when it is not realistic for either of your schedules, you may find yourself getting disappointed. Selecting methods of communication and times to talk early-on in a long distance relationship can help manage expectations and avoid conflict.

2. Plan enough visits: Even if you have good communication in your different locations, it is still important to make the effort to see each other in person. Trying to see each other relatively often, as well as making sure both partners are making the effort to travel if possible, is a great way to strengthen a long distance relationship.

3. Focus on the end-goal: Every long distance relationship is going to experience hardships relating to the difference of location, which makes it especially important to focus on your end goal. If the distance is only temporary, focus on working toward being in the same location again. This reminder that the distance is only a phase in your relationship will help the two of you work through the challenges connected to it!
