

Rachel McAdams and Michael Sheen Hit the Red Carpet Together

Expect to see more photos from this celebrity couple. Rachel McAdams, star of The Notebook, was seen on the red carpet with Tron's Michael Sheen Wednesday at the Cannes International Film Festival, according to UsMagazine.com. The two stars of Midnight in Paris became a couple last year and were spotted making out at the Toronto Film Festival in September. Despite her broken engagement with Ryan Gosling in 2007, the 32-year-old actress said she hasn't given up on true love yet. "My parents are together and still in love. I'm very blessed that way," she said in ELLE's June issue. "I had a great example of love in front of me, and that's probably what makes me such a romantic, because I've seen it firsthand."

What are some appropriate ways to introduce your partner to your co-workers?

Cupid's Advice:

We'd all love to show off our lover on the red carpet, like Sheen and McAdams; however, there are some fairly simple to find an appropriate way to introduce your significant other to co-workers. Cupid has a few examples:

1. Let's do lunch: If you go out to lunch with some coworkers, maybe your partner could meet up with you and join your lunch group. It's a casual and natural way to go about it.

2. Spice up the work party: Not only is bringing along your significant other going to help entertain you at boring work parties, but he or she will be able to meet all of your coworkers that you talk to/complain about.

3. Delivery services: You may have forgotten something from home and your partner might just be able to swing by your office and hand it to you, while saying 'hello' to all of your coworkers.
