

Matt Damon and Scarlett Johansson Learn to Love in 'We Bought a Zoo'

Benjamin Mee (Matt Damon) is a single parent, journalist and widow. While attempting to balance school lunches, fight off single moms and deal with a lousy editor, Mee spontaneously quits his job. Instead of worrying about how to pay bills and get by raising his 14-year old son and 7-year old daughter, he buys an old house in the countryside with amenities like lions, tigers and bears. His zookeeper, Kelly (Scarlett Johansson) is often his saving grace. We Bought a Zoo highlights the fact that a small amount of courage and a lot of love can get people through any number of tough situations.

How do you support a loved one in tough times?

Cupid's Advice:

Stress on a relationship is like carrying a heavy weight on your shoulders. It slows you down, but the will to keep moving is the best way to survive. Here are some tips on how to do so:

- 1. Get involved: The best way to show your significant other support is to get involved with projects in which they are involved. It will also give you both some time together.
- 2. Give an ear: Some days, your partner just needs to vent and have someone listen to them. Offer a shoulder for them to lean on.
- 3. Spin the cynicism: It's okay to have doubts and to share them. It's more important for a relationship to have no hidden truths.
