

Rumor: Is Drew Barrymore Pregnant?

After being spotted leaving a doctor's office holding a sonogram, as seen on TMZ.com, it is rumored that Drew Barrymore and her fiancé Will Kopelman could be expecting their first baby. According to People, the couple would like to become parents. "Drew is so motherly. Will would like to be a dad. Family is so important to him," said a source. However, Barrymore's rep had no comment regarding the pregnancy. In 2006, Barrymore told People, "I definitely feel the beginnings of a tick-tock. Whether I have children or adopt, whatever form a family comes in, I would absolutely love to have it." Recently, Barrymore has been seen wearing loose fitting clothing whenever she was in public.

What do you do if you find out you're pregnant before your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Discovering you are having a baby is a special moment in your life. Knowing your baby can be present at your wedding only makes the whole experience more special. Cupid has some tips:

1. Tell your friends and family: Share the news with the ones you love, especially those who will be attending the wedding and might notice a baby bump. This surprise should only make the wedding more exciting.

2. Cut back on wedding costs: Having a baby is costly. Rather than spending big bucks on extra flowers and candles, think about all the diapers you are going to need. As for wedding gifts, add things that can double as baby gifts to your registry.

3. Take belly into account when dress shopping: When looking for your gown, keep in mind what your belly will look like on the big day. It will be a blessing to share this day with your baby; however, looking like a princess will be a tad bit different than you may have imagined.
