How do you know when to let your partner pay for a date?

Cupid's Advice:

The rules of chivalry traditionally place the man responsible for paying for a date. However, the rules of economy have changed, making the playing field even in terms of paying the bill. Here's a few tips on when to let your partner pay for a date, and when to cover it yourself:

1. They offer: There's a big difference between your honey reaching for the bill out of courtesy but allowing you to pay and having them actually offer to pay. If your beau is willing to pay the bill, let them, and be sure to offer to pay next time.

2. They want to split: There's nothing wrong with you and your sweetheart paying for your own meals. If they suggest splitting the check 50/50, that's a good way for both of you to save money and not feel guilty about that $130 check.

3. You're not alone: If you're out with friends, as Cyrus and Hemsworth were, the rules can be different than if it's just a date. For instance, if your partner wants to pay for the entire table out of appreciation for everyone, you can allow him the gesture. Still, be sure to pay them back with something special later.
