Sometimes things just don't work out with your partner, and a divorce is inevitable. But, it's not so easy to just move past it when children are involved. Here are some ideas on how to stay civil with your ex when you have children together:

- 1. Set up a schedule: You should both agree on a schedule, so there aren't any arguments or misunderstandings. Specific times will make it easier to share equal time with your kids.
- 2. Don't get the kids involved with your breakup: You and your ex have to spend time with your kids, but don't get them involved in your breakup. Your kids shouldn't feel like they have to choose sides or keep secrets for anyone, so just leave them out of it.
- 3. Keep conversation strictly about your children: If you know you are always arguing with your ex partner and just can't get along, keep conversation simply about your children. This is when you both push your other issues aside and make more important decisions about your kids.
