How do you know if someone is into you for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating is one of the most difficult adventures, especially trying to figure out who is trustworthy. Here are some clues on how to find out if someone is interested in you for the right reasons:

1. Through thick and thin: If someone truly has feelings for you based on your personality and not your bank account, they will be with you through it all. Whether you are having a good day or a bad day, a person that is truly into you will be by your side through the good times and the bad times.

2. Give and take: A true relationship is a partnership in which both people in the relationship give and take. If someone is only looking for presents and fancy dinners, they are only looking for the value of your bank account. Someone that is with you because they value you as a person will be around for the expensive nights out as well as the quiet, low key events.

3. A deeper meaning: If the deepest conversation you can have with someone is when the next paycheck comes around, it's time to start looking elsewhere. A deeper connection goes well beyond money, presents and expensive dates. Whether it be a shared interest in a hobby or a friend in common, the more you can relate to the person, the deeper the connection will be.
