

Ryan Reynolds and Blake Lively are Married!

By Erin Minty

After nearly a year of dating, Ryan Reynolds and Blake Lively have tied the knot. A source disclosed to People that the two were married on Sunday night at Boone Hall Plantation in Mt. Pleasant, S.C., just outside of Charleston. After meeting on the set of The Green Lantern in 2011, the couple has been going strong, working out together and buying a house in Bedford, NY just a few weeks ago. Reynolds was previously married to Scarlett Johansson until their divorce in 2010, but Lively has never been married. How the couple kept this marriage completely under wraps from everyone is a mystery, but hopefully it will last.

What are some ways to keep your wedding a surprise?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, couples want to keep their wedding a surprise. Cupid has some advice on how to do just that:

1. Don't wear an engagement ring out: If you don't want people know about your upcoming wedding, an engagement ring is the easiest tip. Keep yours hidden and don't wear it out around nosy friends.

2. Have a small ceremony: Obviously if your wedding is a secret, very few people will be invited. Keep the invite list small, by just including your family and closest friends in order to keep your plans from being told to everyone.

3. Have the ceremony somewhere unexpected: Getting married in your hometown will probably be an easy giveaway. Try to plan your wedding out of town to keep the rumors from spreading.
