What are some ways to support your partner's goals?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether your partner has a goal to lose weight, write a book, or go for that next promotion, you can bet that they will need support from you, whether they ask for it or not. Here are some steps for you to take on their journey:

1. Show up: If you genuinely want to support your mate, you must show up...mentally and physically. That means not only being by their side, but listening to both their frustrations and joys regarding the goal. Make yourself be present and aware to them, giving them the sense that they are not alone.

2. Be a coach and a cheerleader: Sometimes, your partner will come across a challenge that requires more of you than just being present. In these instances, be ready to give them a pep talk and motivate them in a positive direction. Also remember to congratulate them for the little successes, giving them energy to continue forward.

3. Know when to back off: Finally, keep an eye out for the moments when the challenge requires them to walk alone. Allow them to bounce last minute ideas and strategies off of you and then step aside. No matter how much you want to assist, you must allow your partner to fight their battle without you. Just remind them beforehand that when they return, you will be there waiting for them, with open arms.
