

Robert Pattinson Moves Back In With Kristen Stewart

By Jennifer Ross

It appears that Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart have taken the next step in making up. The Twilight couple has moved back in together and have officially reconciled, a source told UsMagazine.com. However, not everything is roses and lollipops between them. Although their make-up was dramatic, Pattinson, 26, is insecure and sensitive to the relationship, say sources. No doubt, he still is not over Stewart's, 22, infidelity with her Snow White and the Huntsman director, Rupert Sanders. Will the couple's first indiscretion be their last? Only time will tell.

How do you know when to forgive your partner after cheating?

Cupid's Advice:

Forgiveness can be a very difficult thing to do when your partner has betrayed your love. Never-the-less, it is very important to eventually forgive, regardless of whether or not you decide to reconcile. So to help you decide, here are few clues to look for that tell you it is time to forgive:

1. You've dealt with the truth: Although you wanted to blame everything on your partner, the two of you have realized that cheating was only a symptom to something else and steps were taken to resolve it. Dealing with the real issues in your relationship is necessary in order not to end up back where you two started.

2. You've let go: In dealing with the main problem, you have found ways to accept the pain your mate has caused you. You may never forget, but you also choose to focus on the positive aspects as a result of his cheating. Also, you've realized that you needed to let go for the welfare of your relationship and your health.

3. You feel it: When you think about the infidelity, you are comfortable sharing your story in a positive manner. You are confident in yourself and your relationship with your partner. Overall and in general, you simply feel better inside and out.
