Oscar-winning actress Halle Berry recently announced she is having a second child, this time with Olivier Martinez—and it's a boy! The new bundle of joy will join big sister Nahla, Berry's 5-year-old child, UsMagazine.com reports. "Every night we pray to God, and she's so sweet. Berry says, 'God, please bring me a bunk bed and a baby sister.' And I say, 'I can do one of those things, I know for sure! The other one we have to keep praying on.'"

What are some ways to prepare for a baby boy?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a boy is a completely different experience than having a girl. You just found out you are pregnant with a baby boy and have no idea what to do next. Cupid is here to show you where to start:

1. Blue everything: You just found out the sex of your baby—it's a boy! Now's the time to buy the blue paint and start preparing the baby room. You and your husband will feel even more excited to meet the newest addition to your family as you paint his walls. Start looking for blankets and baby furniture as well. The more prepared you are, the better!

2. Sports: Your husband has every intention of raising your son to be a fan of all his favorite sports teams. Surprise your love by purchasing sports onesies of all his teams for your future son. Your husband will love seeing the outfits and will love them even more when your son is wearing them during his first game.

3. Boy clothes: Aside from sports jerseys, your future son will need a lot of little pants and shirts. Buying baby clothes is such a fun and memorable occasion. Bring your mom and sister and make a whole day out of it. You will all enjoy shopping for those tiny shoes and socks that will soon be worn by the newest—and cutest—addition to the family.
