

Celebrity News: Denise Richards Calls Charlie Sheen the 'Greatest Ex Ever' for Lending Jet

By Meghan Fitzgerald

UsMagazine.com reports that 42-year old actress Denise Richards was in NYC filming the new ABC series Twisted on Mother's Day. Ex-husband Charlie Sheen let her fly his jet home the next day back to L.A. Richards tweeted a Instagram picture of herself looking out the window and wrote, "Greatest ex @charliesheen." The caption of the picture was, "My mom's day gift flying me home on his plane so I can take the kids to school."

What are some things to be cautious of when remaining friends with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It is necessary to be cautious if you are going to remain friends with an ex. You will never feel the same about someone after you've dated them. Cupid has some tips:

1. Relationship analysis: When it comes to being friends with your ex, you should be cautious of analyzing your relationship. You do not need to hash out all the reasons why you didn't work, and why you two are no longer together. Friends do not talk like that. So don't. Stick as much as possible to your typical friend conversation.

2. Current partners: If you allowed your ex to remain in your life, be careful if you're currently in a relationship. When your ex starts to ask questions about your partner, what they're like, your current affairs with them – beware. It is not in any way necessary for your ex to ask you about the small details of your current relationship. That is for you and your mate only.

3. Feelings: Be super careful of developing feelings back for your ex. If they remain in your life after a breakup, feelings are most likely still fresh. If you know feelings are going to arise if you keep them in your life, reconsider. It's not worth falling for the person you swore you were never going to fall for again. If you think your ex is developing feelings again, be careful.
