What are three spontaneous romantic gestures to make for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Your partner knows you love them, but sometimes it's nice to remind them in a special way. Take the time to do something special and surprise them with a romantic gesture. It doesn't have to cost a lot of money or require a lot of planning. Small and sweet things are just as good as the big and grand. Even Justin Verlander knows that! Here are some great little romantic gestures to let your partner know that you care:

1. Leave a little love note for them. Even if it's just a simple 'I love you' written on a post-it note, these little handwritten notes can brighten up anybody's day. It means that you took a little bit of time to write down how you feel and do something nice for your partner. They can keep it and look at it whenever they want to cheer up.

2. Buy their favorite snack food while you're at the store. If your partner really likes a certain brand of cookies, or is absolutely loves some special type of chips, remember to pick some up the next time you're at the store. It might not seem like much, but it lets your partner know that you're paying attention and that you think of them even when they're not around.

3. Visit them at work and bring them lunch. Depending on your partner's job, maybe you could stop by the office and drop off some lunch for them. Sometimes work can be stressful, and seeing your face and knowing that you thought of them is a great way to put anyone in a better mood. Just make sure it's at the proper time so you're not interrupting anything!
