How can you and your partner incorporate charitable causes into your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

For most of us, extra time and money are hard to come by. This fact makes it difficult for working couples to help charitable organizations. Do not fear! Cupid has some dating and love advice to help you and your partner contribute to those causes that are near and dear to you without making you eat Ramen noodles for the rest of your lives:

1. Donate money: Instead of spending money on that five-star restaurant, you and your partner should consider giving those funds to a charity that means something to both of you, whether it be to an animal rights group or to bring clean drinking water to third world countries. Make it a monthly tradition and pick a new organization each time!

2. Donate time: Instead of spending your day mindlessly sitting around the house or wandering around the mall, make your Saturday useful by volunteering with your partner. There are so many opportunities to help out in even the smallest of communities. Look into local nursing homes, soup kitchens, and animal shelters, just to name a few options. It'll make you feel good to help others in need, and those who you helped will be forever grateful.

3. Fundraise: Sit down with your partner and organize a fundraiser for a local organization that's struggling. Rally your friends and neighbors to help raise awareness or to donate funds. Any way that you can give back to your community will show how proud you are of your home.
