Celebrity engagements can be over-the-top! What are three ways to make your proposal memorable?

Cupid's Advice:

People will ask your partner about his or her marriage proposal for years to come, so it's best to make it unforgettable. Cupid has some tips:

1. Spontaneity: What is a whirlwind romance without being spontaneous at times? A great way to make a proposal special is by shocking your partner and taking their breath away. Sure, you may have discussed marriage and having children, but that doesn't mean your partner needs to know exactly when you will pop the question! Think about what you want to tell them, choose the perfect atmosphere, get down on one knee and bask in the happiness!

2. A picture is worth a thousand words: Capture your special moment on camera! It is something that you will remember and treasure for the rest of your lives together. You could have a photographer/videographer there to capture the moment for life, as well as having family and friends join you afterwards to make it special and announce it to your loved ones.

3. Detail oriented: The details of the proposal are important. What matters most, though, is the love you and your partner feel. Including significant details will only make the proposal that much more personal and memorable. It will show that you truly know your partner and the history that you have created together. Include their favorite flowers, ask their father for permission the old school way, choose a location that has meaning to the both of you, and plan the events before and after the proposal.
