Say goodbye to Glee. In latest celebrity news, according to UsMagazine.com, Lea Michele wrapped her sixth and the final season of Glee this weekend, along with her fellow cast mates. The actress took to Twitter in light of the big changes and said, "Thank you so much to all of our amazing Gleeks who supported us so much! I love you guys. We were so lucky to have had the most amazing crew who worked so hard everyday to make the show amazing. I'm so grateful for them...So thank you all again so much from the bottom of my heart. I will miss Rachel Berry so very much.” Michele also posted a beautiful picture of her leaving the set with late celebrity ex Cory Monteith’s football jersey from the show. Emotions are high, but we are very excited to see what this superstar will do next!

In latest celebrity news, Lea Michele is honoring her late celebrity ex Cory Monteith by keeping his ‘Glee’ jersey as a memento. What are some ways to honor a partner who has passed away?

Cupid’s Advice:

Some of the hardest moments in life include a large amount of heartache. But like Lea Michele, you will be able to move on and still honor your past relationships. Cupid has some advice on how to handle a loved one who has passed away:

1. Take the time you need: When tragedy strikes, it can be a full body experience. When the news broke about Monteith’s death, Michele got away from the public and mourned in her own way and in her own time. You are allowed this time to internalize the tragedy and work through your loss like Lea did with the loss of her now celebrity ex.

2. Careful with social media: Social media can be a tricky space when it comes to dealing with death. You need to be cautious in order to respect the life and family of your love, but you also want and need to express your feelings. Michele has made many beautiful posts in honor of Monteith and their relationship together on social media since his death in 2013.
