

Jennie Garth and David Abrams Share PDA-Filled Golf Date Post-Celebrity Engagement

By

Maggie Manfredi

Two love birdies! According to E! Online, Jennie Garth and David Abrams shared a PDA-filled golf date post-celebrity engagement recently. The celebrity couple couldn't keep their hands off of each other and were smiling and laughing while playing the game. Garth and Abrams have been engaged for merely a month. A source commented on the celebrity engagement, saying, "Dave had been working on this for months, and really wanted to plan something special for her around her birthday and make it perfect."

This duo is celebrating their celebrity engagement on a golf course! What are some ways to make your engagement period special?

Cupid's Advice:

Engagement periods vary depending on the couple. Regardless of the the length make sure to get some quality time in together are fiances:

1. Have a celebration: You are going to tie the knot! Get together all the people you care about and celebrate this milestone with a party. Have it at home or go to one of your favorite spots as a couple to commemorate the occasion.

Related Link: Jennie Garth Steps Out Without Wedding Ring

2. Capture the moments: Since, in the grand scheme of things, the engagement can be a rather short period of time in the relationship, document the moments. Have a cheesy photo shoot post engagement, enjoy all the date nights and don't be afraid to take the "usies."

Related Link: Jennie Garth Says Her Life is "Crazy" Amid Divorce

3. Try new things: The trajectory of your individual lives is about to conjoin together. So take this new road and discover new adventures as a pair. If you are feeling brave go skydiving or bungee jumping, or keep it casual and try a new cuisine or a random dive bar on the weekend for an exciting experience. Who knows what will happen or who you will meet!

What are your ideas for a sporty date? Share with us below!