

Chris Pratt is Featured in Unlikely Relationship Movie, 'Jurassic World'

By Courtney Omernick

Twenty-two years after the events of Jurassic Park, there is now a functioning dinosaur theme park, Jurassic World. After multiple years of operation and the amount of visitors declining, a new attraction is created to gain new visitors, which backfires. The two main characters, who are ex-partners, are forced to come together in this adventure-packed action-turned-chick flick.

Cupid has the Jurassic-sized movie details.

Should you see it:

You wouldn't think that Jurassic World is a chick flick or relationship movie, but there is a catch. The two main characters, Owen (Chris Pratt) and Claire (Bryce Dallas Howard) are exes trying to mend their relationship in order to do what's best for the future of Jurassic World. With all the action, and a bit of romance, this film won't disappoint!

Who to take:

This action packed, relationship movie would be great to see with your friends or significant other.

How can you work through your differences with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, even if we break up with a significant other, we can't avoid them. There might be children involved, you might work together, or have the same friends. Heartbreak hurts, seeing them often shouldn't have to. Below is some relationship advice on how to work through your differences with your ex.

1. Put past arguments behind you: If you're constantly hanging on to negative feelings, you're never going to have a positive conversation/relationship with your ex. Don't bring up past fights, pet peeves, etc. Treat them as if they were a friend, not an enemy.

2. Create boundaries: Even though you still have to be around your ex, don't let them run your life! Make it clear on when it's appropriate to visit, make phone calls, text you, etc.

3. Avoid being each other's crutch: You may be mourning the loss of your relationship with your ex, however, do not seek comfort in their arms! Find friends or family members to confide in.
