Bravo's Millionaire Matchmaker Patti Stanger approves of new celebrity couple Taylor Swift and Calvin Harris! According to UsMagazine.com, "I actually hope this works out. I hope they don't get swelled heads and he gets a bigger better deal with some little hottie potati because they do work long hours, they're always on the road. If they're not working together, thank God he's a producer and he can produce her, which I think is the key to everything."

This celebrity couple has Patti Stanger's blessing! What are some ways to get the approval of your friends and family about a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you truly like somebody and want to be in an official relationship and love with them, one of the first things you naturally do is tell your family and friends. They are the ones who care about you the most after all. Cupid has some tips:

1. Introduce them: Introduce your new significant other to your family and friends. It's a big step when this introduction happens, because it shows that this relationship and love is serious or headed toward the serious route. Have the big meeting take place somewhere all will feel comfortable, and keep it low key and simple. Your loved ones want you happy, so there really is no need to worry!

2. Share the strong suits: When you're discussing your new relationship with your family and friends, make sure you share all of the strong suits that your partner has to offer. There is no need to sugar coat anything. Keep it real, and make sure you tell them the amazing qualities that you admire in your partner and fell in love with.

3. Speak from the heart: No matter what the situation is life, you have to be true to yourself and your heart. Speak straight from the heart when you are talking with your friends and relatives about your new partner. They only want you to be happy, and they will be happy when you share how thrilled you are with this special person in your life.
